

Arwa Saidi received her MB. BCh degree from the Royal College of Surgeons in Dublin, Ireland in 1988. She completed a residency in Internal Medicine/ Pediatrics and a fellowship in Pediatric Cardiology at Baylor College of Medicine in Houston, Texas. She has been on the University of Florida faculty since 2003 and is the Director of the Adult Congenital Heart Disease Program. Residents have twice chosen her as the Department's "Outstanding Teacher of the Year" and she is a recipient of multiple Exemplary Teaching Awards. She has served on the Adult Congenital Heart Association Medical Advisory Board since 2006. Her clinical and research interests also include transition from pediatric to adult health care